

Today's Housing is Home to Tomorrow's Leaders

By Jereme Grinslade (Delta Kappa/Ball State)

In 1927, The National Board of Trustees, now The Norwich Housing Corporation, was formed. Since the corporation's inception, The Norwich Housing Corporation has provided low interest life safety loans, housing loans and emergency funds to hundreds of Theta Chi Fraternity corporations. Seventy five years later, this trend still holds true. During the past five years, the following chapters have been able to take advantage of a Norwich Housing Corporation loan:

Theta/University of Massachusetts
Lambda/Cornell
Sigma/Oregon State
Tau/University of Florida
Psi/Wisconsin
Omega/Penn State
Alpha Delta/Purdue
Alpha Mu/Iowa State
Alpha Nu/Georgia Tech
Alpha Sigma/University of Oregon
Alpha Phi/University of Alabama
Alpha Chi/Syracuse
Alpha Psi/University of Maryland
Beta Alpha/UCLA
Beta Zeta/Michigan State
Beta Theta/Drexel
Beta Kappa/Hamline

Beta Sigma/Lehigh
Beta Upsilon/CSU-Fresno
Gamma Xi/San Jose State
Gamma Chi/Randolph-Macon
Delta Beta/University of Georgia
Delta Gamma/West Virginia Wesleyan
